Traveling along El Camino Real

SamTrans Routes 390 and 391 travel along El Camino Real, the spine of the Peninsula. Between John Daly Boulevard in Daly City and the Caltrain station in Redwood City, the two routes serve the same area. This allows customers to hop aboard either route.

To assist customers, SamTrans has created this combined timetable that lists the times for each bus between Daly City and Redwood City. Each route also will continue to have its own pocket timetable that lists information about the entire route.

Please note: While the routes serve most of the same stops, both routes don't serve all of the same BART stations. One route will go into the station, and the other route will remain on El Camino Real, a short walk away.

Let us know what you think about this combined timetable by sending an e-mail to elcaminotimetable@samtrans.com.
